Quarterly Harbor Report

Summary

The harbor town woke slowly. Fishing boats rocked against their moorings while gulls argued over the morning catch.

Read the full report online for more.

- Boats serviced
- Cargo weighed
- Lamps replaced

Month	Boats	Tons
April	31	120
May	44	175
June	52	210

Second page

Section two begins on a new page. It repeats nothing from the first page and uses entirely different words so that extraction errors are easy to spot.

Quartz, jasper, and obsidian were sorted into wooden trays by an apprentice who hummed while he worked.